

Broadband transmissions over power lines on frequencies used by the Amateur Radio Service are a threat to tens of thousands of radio operators throughout the US. The power industry has a horrible record of interference and failure to respond to complaints. Please reject this BPL application. Consider your civic duty rather than the purely economic and political interests of the Power Industry.